NINTH: At and during all the times hereinafter mentioned, the defendants were common carriers of merchandise for hire and owned, operated, managed, chartered and/or controlled the aircraft, vehicles, trucks, trailers, properties, and warehouses that were used or were to be used for the movement, storage and delivery of the cargo which is the subject of this action.

TENTH: The cargo which is the subject of this action consisted of two lots totaling 15,000 Nokia cell phones, purchased by the plaintiff's subrogor from Nokia, Inc., of Ft. Worth, TX.

ELEVENTH: The first lot is described as 10,000 phones, Model 1600bMSPE_LS, with a unit value of US$57.00 each, for a total value of $570,000.00. They were packaged 5 phones to a box, for a total of 2,000 boxes. The total weight of this lot was 11,375 pounds (5,175 kilograms).

TWELFTH: The second lot is described as 5,000 phones, Model 3220BMSPE_SLS MX, with a unit value of US$90.00 each, for a total value of $450,000.00. They were packaged 5 phones to a box, for a total of 1,000 boxes. The total weight of this lot was 5,795 pounds (2,584 kilograms). $2534 + 114 = 2648$

THIRTEENTH: At the time of this loss, plaintiff's subrogor Telefonica had a contract with defendant Exel's Peruvian counterpart, Exel Global Logistics Sucursal del Peru S.A., (hereinafter "Exel Peru"), for the integrated transportation and customs clearance and delivery of all of its' international cargo.

FOURTEENTH: When this cargo shipment was scheduled, Exel Peru contacted defendant Exel to commence the transportation. The defendant Cielos was nominated to perform the air transport.

FIFTEENTH: On or about April 25, 2006, the defendant Exel issued house airwaybills (HAWB) numbers DFW01 274776 and DFW01 274777 for the transportation of the two lots of mobile phones, from the shipper Nokia's Irving, TX warehouse, to the consignee Telefonica's Lima, Peru facility. The departure airport was listed as Dallas-Fort Worth (DFW) International airport. True copies of these two airwaybills are attached hereto, and form a part hereof.

SIXTEENTH: The 2,000 box lot of cargo, on 25 pallets, was allegedly received into an Exel warehouse or freight station on or about April 24, 2006, from an Exel truck under Pro No. 275518 and placed at warehouse location DFW01-A-1; Warehouse Receipt Number 24047070 was issued. A true copy of this warehouse receipt is attached hereto, and forms a part hereof.

SEVENTEENTH: The 1,000 box lot of cargo, on 13 pallets, was allegedly received into an Exel warehouse or freight station on or about April 27, 2006, from an Exel truck under Pro No. 275864 and placed at warehouse location DFW01-B-1; Warehouse Receipt Number 24047266 was issued. A true copy of this warehouse receipt is attached hereto, and forms a part hereof.

EIGHTEENTH: On or about April 24, 2006, the defendant Cielos issued a master airwaybill (MAWB) number 529 1143 4975 to defendant Exel as shipper, for the transportation of both lots of mobile phones together, from the defendant Exel's Dallas-Fort Worth area facility, to the consignee DHL Danzas Air & Ocean Peru S.A., who was an agent for defendant Exel in Lima, Peru.

NINETEENTH: Defendant Exel then contacted Cielos' subsidiary Galaxy to fulfil the transportation.

TWENTIETH: For reasons that are not entirely clear, defendant Galaxy was unable to transport the cargo by air directly from Dallas, TX, either to Miami or to Lima, and thereupon opted to subcontract the services of defendant Checkmate to move the cargo by truck from Dallas to Miami.

TWENTY-FIRST: Defendant Checkmate issued Bill of Lading Number 136971 dated April 25, 2006 for transportation of the cargo from Coppell, TX to Miami, FL. The shipper is listed as the defendant Exel, and the consignee is shown as the defendant Cielos. A true copy of this bill of lading is attached hereto, and forms a part hereof.

TWENTY-SECOND: The destination shown on defendant Checkmate's bill of lading is Cielos' facility serving the Miami International Airport (MIA). The lading also appears to show that a Checkmate truck driver picked up the cargo from defendant Exel.

TWENTY-THIRD: Alternatively, one of the defendants picked up the cargo from the shipper Nokia, or other location, and moved it to a Dallas-Ft. Worth area location for transfer to defendant Continental.

TWENTY-FOURTH: Thereafter, the defendant Checkmate contracted with the defendant Continental to effect the actual transportation of the cargo to Miami.

TWENTY-FIFTH: The defendant Continental's appointed driver, Juan A. Artze, picked up the cargo in the Dallas-Ft. Worth area on or between April 25th through April 27th, 2006. The transport vehicle was a 2004 Freightliner tractor, Florida license plate A8829U, coupled to a 53' Continental utility trailer, Florida license plate C7868T.

TWENTY-SIXTH: The entire tractor and trailer unit was hi-jacked in Port Lucie County, Florida, between about 1:30 a.m. and about 3:00 a.m. on April 28, 2006, while the driver was eating and taking a shower at the Flying J Truck Stop, 100 North Kings Highway, Ft. Pierce, FL, and before the cargo was delivered to Galaxy in Miami.

TWENTY-SEVENTH: The driver called the police, and police and FBI personnel investigated the incident. The Freightliner tractor was recovered by the Hialeah, FL police, without the trailer, on May 1, 2006, at the Gunderlin Ltd. parking lot at 3695 E. 11th Avenue, Hialeah, FL.

TWENTY-EIGHTH: The utility trailer, without any of the cargo, was recovered by the Miami-Dade, FL police on May 1, 2006, on the roadside near 3345 N.W. 116th Street, Miami, FL.

TWENTY-NINTH: The defendants received, accepted and agreed to transport the goods as described in the aforesaid warehouse receipts, airwaybills, and bills of lading, as common carriers, from Dallas, TX to Lima, Peru, and there deliver the same in like order and condition as when shipped, all in consideration of agreed freights thereupon paid or agreed to be paid, and in accordance with the valid terms of said warehouse receipts, airwaybills, and bills of lading above referred to then and there signed and delivered to the various shippers by the duly authorized agents of the defendants.

THIRTIETH: The defendants failed to make delivery of the cargo that had been shipped.

THIRTY-FIRST: By reason of the premises, the defendants breached, failed and violated their duties and obligations as common carriers, warehousemen, and bailees, and were otherwise at fault in negligence, or otherwise.

THIRTY-SECOND: At all material times plaintiff or plaintiff's subrogor was the insurer, shipper, owner, receiver, and / or the consignee of the shipments described herein, and as holder of the covering bills of lading was entitled to the delivery of said merchandise at destination in the same good order and condition as when shipped, and plaintiff brings this action on its own behalf and as agent and trustee on behalf of and for the interests of all parties who may be or become interested in the said shipment, as their respective interests may ultimately appear.

THIRTY-THIRD: Plaintiffs have duly performed all duties and obligations on their part to be performed.

THIRTY-FOURTH: By reason of premises, plaintiff has suffered damages in the sum of US$ 804,153.34, as nearly as may now be determined, no part of which has been paid, although payment thereof has been duly demanded.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays:

1. That the process in due form of law according to the practice of this court may issue against each of the said defendants, citing them to appear and answer under oath all and singular the matters aforesaid;

2. That the Court will order, adjudge and decree that said defendants pay to plaintiff the damages sustained together with interest thereon and the costs and disbursements of this action; and

3. That plaintiff may have such other and further relief in the premises as in law and justice it may be entitled to receive.
